

KILKENNY COUNTY COUNCIL LIBRARY SERVICE

The Library from A-Z

PART 2: N-Z

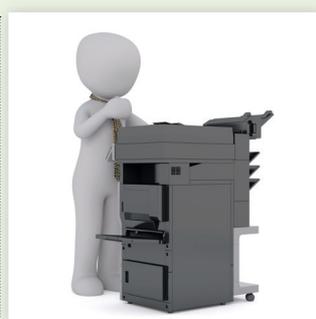

Requests: Unfortunately, sometimes the book you want is on a loan. Bestsellers may have a waiting list. You can request to be added to the waiting list by asking staff, or requesting online through kilkennylibrary.ie. You will be contacted when the book becomes available for you.

T-Trolleys, thrillers and Transparent Languages - Our library language learning app gives you a choice of 100+ languages, and can help improve pronunciation, or help you prepare for mock oral exams!

provides business and employment support. Check out our website to see more.

WIFI - Unreliable WIFI at home? Access is available to members in all branches with just your library barcode and Pin!

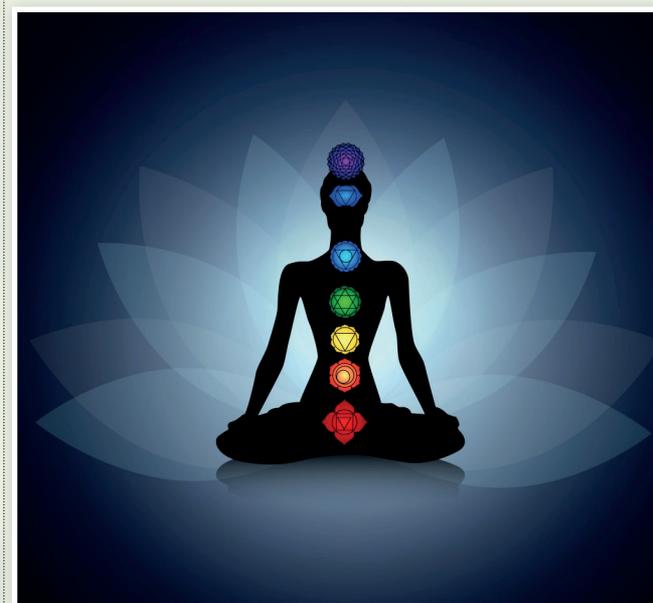

P-Photocopying and Printing: You can now print directly from your phone or other device straight to many of our library printers, so don't panic if your home printer decides to go on strike at the most inconvenient time! See our website for details.

S-Self-service: Very intuitive and easy to use, but we're here to help if needed. There is also the option of using the self-service feature on your phone if you download the library app!

Sensory Resources - Specialised toys to help with motor skills, life skills and tactile issues are U-Universal class - Whatever your interests there is sure to be an online course available through our app, Universal Class. I'm tempted by the course on Speed Reading but you might like the sound of How to win arguments, Chakras (no I don't know what that is either) or Interpreting your dreams. There's even one called Party Planning - I think we all need a refresher course on that!

I'll have to take a little poetic licence with X,Y,Z

N-Newspapers: When we see the back of Covid we will again be stocking local and national newspapers. The National Newspaper Archive is a wonderful resource of newspapers going back to the 1700s accessible on public PCs in your local library.

Choose from a selection of Irish daily newspapers digitally through Pressreader app, or keep in touch with what's happening in your home country or around the world.

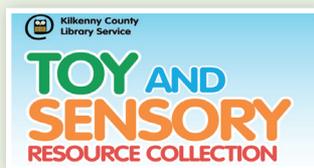

O-Opening Hours: Our libraries open one late night each week and open Saturday mornings!

Q-Quiz: How well do you know your books? Check out our weekly Sunday night Brain Books quiz on our website or Facebook page.

Pic-Reference

R-Reference: Each library has a small reference section where you will find books of local interest, dictionaries, encyclopaedias, and other reference material.

available for teachers and parents of special needs children. This is supported by a specialised book collection geared towards adults or children.

V-Virtual book club. Each month we choose an a book to read, and discuss through a Facebook group-Join the chat discussion at the end of the month or check in to get some great recommendations!

W-WorkMatters is a national initiative where libraries in partnership with other bodies

X-Nothing beats the eXcitement of getting your hands on a much-sought novel!

Y- Yawning - but I'll just read one more chapter....

Z-And now it's time for Z sleep

